

Dear Gregory,

I hope that you don't mind, but I continue to watch you from afar. I trust that you find that having a secret admirer is a flattering proposition and know that you will receive this token of my affection in the same spirit that it was delivered - a spirit of hope of starting something very beautiful together.

You see, I don't do long distance relationships well and I really believe that we need to get to know each other on a more personal basis. I've watched your success over the years and I feel that you're finally ready to take that bold step towards expanding your business to New Hampshire.

Bearing that in mind, I know that you've been hurt before, hurt by high taxes, hurt by a lack of access to state decision makers, hurt by an over reaching state government, and hurt by traffic patterns that leave little time for the important things in life.

So what do I have to offer? I offer you a lower tax burden, available real estate, a skilled and qualified workforce and a quality of life that has been rated tops in the nation for five out of the past six years. I offer you the promise of access to government officials at the highest level. I offer you a state that's willing to do anything to help you grow, succeed and make all of your dreams come true.

Let's face it - we're next door neighbors and it's time that we shared a cup of coffee, some laughs and some private conversation. Again, I hope that you don't find this letter too forward but I just feel that the time has never been better to begin our journey together. Neither one of us is getting any younger and it's high time that we start enjoying all that life and new challenges have to offer. What do you have to lose? Pick up the phone and discover the opportunity that is right around the corner.

XOXO
